

River Fox Events

A REFERENCE FOR DESIGN, COPY & VOICE

Considered, design-led event styling — Surrey, the South East and London. This book is the single source of truth for how the brand looks, sounds and behaves across every page, image and conversation.

CHAPTER 01

Considered, design-led, calm.

River Fox Events is Laura Hyde's luxury event styling studio in Surrey. Balloon installations, backdrops, signage, light-up letters, props and tablescape architecture for milestone moments — christenings, big birthdays, anniversaries, weddings, corporate launches and brand activations.

A · WHAT WE PROMISE

A room that feels considered the moment guests walk in.

Scale and palette held together by one designer's eye, executed with the calm of someone who has done it before. Hosts get something quietly extraordinary — never punchy, never novelty-led.

B · WHO WE SERVE

Milestones, mostly.

- Children's parties — first birthdays through to teenage milestones
- Milestone celebrations — 30ths, 40ths, 50ths, 60ths and beyond
- Weddings, christenings, baby showers
- Corporate & brand styling, award nights, product launches, shopfronts
- Luxury picnics & outdoor occasions

Three things we hold to.

Quietly authoritative.

Laura speaks as the designer, in first person, with the calm of someone who has done it before. Sentences earn their length. Sensory detail does the work that adjectives can't.

A · SIX RULES

How Laura sounds.

- 01 First person, quietly authoritative. "I want the family to be able to read it in seconds." Not "we" — Laura speaks as the designer.
- 02 Short, specific, occasionally fragmentary. "Beautiful bones, very little atmosphere." A two-word sentence is fine when the moment calls for it.
- 03 Sensory detail over adjectives. Name the actual thing — "pink scallop-edge plates, a soft zebra-print salad plate on top" — not "beautiful tablescape".
- 04 Trade-craft language used naturally. Sightlines, scale, the brief, sourcing, install morning, sign-off, render board. Trust the reader to keep up.
- 05 Em dashes welcome. Exclamation marks never. Use the em dash to slow a sentence down, not the exclamation to speed it up.
- 06 Quiet expertise, never sales. Explain why a choice was made; don't tell the reader it was excellent.

B · TONE BY SURFACE

Same voice, different rooms.

SURFACE	TONE	LENGTH
Hero headline	Considered, image-forward	4–8 words
RIVER FOX EVENTS Section body	Calm, descriptive, design-led	2–4 sentence paragraphs
Journal article	First person, learn, sensory reflection	200–1200 words

CHAPTER 03

Say this, not that.

A • BANNED

Never use.

Filler phrases and adjective-led praise that say nothing about the work. Strip on sight.

~~If you're looking for...~~ • ~~Look no further...~~ • ~~We pride ourselves on...~~ • ~~Our team of experts...~~ • ~~The perfect party~~ • ~~Stunning~~ • ~~Amazing~~ • ~~Wow factor~~ • ~~Show-stopping~~ • ~~Exclamation marks~~

B • CAPPED — RESTRAINT

Use, but rarely.

- Bespoke — banned from titles, max once per meta description
- Luxury — max twice across all page titles site-wide
- From £460 — appears in max six page metas site-wide

C • PREFERRED — HOUSE LANGUAGE

The trade-craft we like.

Considered • Design-led • Calm • Restraint • Render board • Sightlines • Scale • Install morning • Sign-off • The brief • Sourcing • Tablescape • Threshold piece • Pastel & neutral • Milestone

CHAPTER 04

What we do. What we don't.

Two filters protect the brand: the work we'll publish images of, and the inventory we actually supply. If a topic needs an out-of-scope item to land, the topic is wrong — pick a different one.

A • AUTO-REJECT

Never published.

- Soft play setups
- Mascot or costume-character appearances
- Disco lights, smoke machines, club-style lighting rigs
- Phone parties / mobile gaming-truck parties
- Plastic novelty tat, party-shop bunting, off-the-shelf themed kits
- Anything cheap-feeling, punchy or novelty-led

B • DISCOURAGED BUT ALLOWED

Range extension, not the house style.

Only published when there's a real, photographed event behind it — and the design moves (palette, scale, restraint) lead, not the IP. Aim for ≤ 1 in 6 articles in this bucket.

- Character themes — Bluey, Mario, Disney, Paw Patrol, etc.
- Neon palettes & brighter colour schemes

Laura's toolkit.

The canonical in-and-out list. Articles, image direction and design-move language must build only from the IN list. If a topic needs an OUT item to land, the topic is wrong — pick another.

A • IN — LAURA SUPPLIES

In scope.

- Balloons — arches, garlands, walls, hoops, towers, organic installs, centrepieces, threshold pieces, number stacks, jumbo & helium
- Backdrops — fabric, sailboard (custom-painted with vinyl), themed photo walls, sequin walls, full themed installations
- Signage — painted boards, vinyl & acrylic stickers on board, life-size cardboard cutouts, personalised acrylic and foam signs, custom welcome signs (weatherproof variants)
- Light-up letters & numbers, number stacks
- Up-lighters — including waterproof for outdoor
- Themed props — 3D acrylic, plinths, risers, cake stands (NOT the cake)
- Faux florals — sparingly, as texture, never the headline
- Textiles — muslin, cheesecloth, drapery, linens, chair sashes & covers
- Soft seats, low tables, cushions — kids' setups, picnics

B • OUT — NEVER FRAME AS LAURA'S WORK

Out of scope.

- Fresh florals, fresh foliage, any compositional flower-arranging
- Vessels, glassware, vintage stoneware (the curated-tablescape category)
- Candles or candle-holders
- The cake itself (cake stands only)

CHAPTER 05

Moss, cream & soft peach.

All colours are specified as HSL in code. The hex values below are for Figma. Never use pure black — the brand ink is a softened charcoal.

A • SURFACES

Backgrounds.

Background — cream

#EFEDE6

hsl(47 22% 92%)

Surface alt — warm white

#FCFBF8

hsl(45 36% 98%)

Cards, form wrap, popovers.

Surface deep — moss black

#1E2421

hsl(144 9% 13%)

Dark sections, footer, enquire band.

Surface warm — peach tint

#F1E3DF

hsl(14 38% 91%)

Soft warm section background.

Surface blush — sage tint

#E7EEE9

hsl(137 18% 92%)

Soft sage section background.

On-deep — text on dark

#E9E6DD

hsl(47 22% 89%)

Body copy on surface deep.

B • INK

Text.

CHAPTER 06

Fraunces · DM Sans

JetBrains Mono.

A · THE THREE FAMILIES

What each one is for.

Aa

Fraunces

Display serif — headlines, hero, pull-quotes, italic highlights.

Weights: 300, 400, 500 (italics 300, 400).

Default 300 with letter-spacing
-0.015em.

Aa

DM Sans

UI sans — body, buttons, nav, form inputs.

Weights: 300, 400, 500, 600.

Body baseline: 15px / line-height 1.55.

Aa

JetBrains Mono

Mono — eyebrows, labels, meta.

Weight: 400 (occasional 500/600).

Always uppercase, letter-spacing
0.18–0.22em.

B · TYPE SCALE

Sizes in use.

HERO H1

Considered styling

FRAUNCES 300 ·
CLAMP(56–120PX) · 7VW

H2 SECTION

Children's parties

FRAUNCES 300 ·
CLAMP(40–80PX) ·

CHAPTER 07

Generous space. Tight rhythm.

A · CONTAINERS & SECTIONS

The page frame.

TOKEN	VALUE	USAGE
container max	1440px	Max page width
container padding	56px · 32px @960 · 28px @640	Horizontal padding
section padding (desktop)	120px 0	Default vertical rhythm
section padding (1024+)	96px 0	Mid-desktop tighter rhythm
section padding (mobile)	56px 0	≤760px
laptop section	80px 0	768–1366px
nav padding	14px 56px 18px	Fixed top nav
scroll-padding-top	80px	Anchor offset (mobile / tablet)

B · SPACING SCALE

Tailwind defaults — used as-is.

space-1	4px
space-2	8px
space-3	12px
space-4	16px
space-6	24px
space-8	32px

CHAPTER 08

Editorial, natural light.

A • HOUSE STYLE

The visual anchor.

Photorealistic editorial event styling photography, soft natural daylight, pastel and neutral palette, considered composition, balloon installations and tablescapes in real UK venue interiors, no people or faces, no text, no logos, shot on medium format with shallow depth of field.

B • SUBJECT & COMPOSITION

What's in the frame.

- Lead with installations Laura actually supplies — balloons, backdrops, signage, light-up letters, plinths, tablescape props
- Faux florals can sit in frame as quiet texture, never as the subject
- Subject centred so a square or 4:3 crop still leads with the subject (hero strips and OG cards crop hard)
- No people, no faces, no logos, no on-image text
- Natural daylight feel even when retouched. Shadows soft, never theatrical

C • FILE & SIZE TARGETS

What to ship.
